

Social and Personal.

MRS. DANIEL DE JARNETTE STAPLES has issued invitations for the marriage of her daughter, Mary Bruce, to Robert Chester Marks, the wedding to take place in Christ Church, Roanoke, on Wednesday morning, December 1, at 11 o'clock. The wedding will be quite a social event, and after their return from their honeymoon Mr. Marks and his bride will make their home in College Place, Norfolk-Va.

Miss Brock Here. Miss Landonia Brock, of Riverton, the great-niece of Dr. C. W. P. Brock, and a debutante this winter, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Brock at 208 East Franklin Street. Mrs. Brock, who spent about two weeks as the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Floyd Hughes, in Norfolk, has returned to the city.

No German Thanksgiving. The German which was to have been given Thanksgiving night in the Jefferson Hotel in honor of the visiting students of the University of Virginia and North Carolina by the girls of Richmond has been given up, owing to the fact that the game has been cancelled.

The Guest of Miss Taylor. Miss Nina Whitmore, of Petersburg, will arrive next week to spend several weeks in Richmond as the guest of Miss Eugenie Seiden Taylor. A number of attractive entertainments will be given in Miss Whitmore's honor.

Of Interest Here. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Jones have announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Grace Lee, to Chester Dwyer, of Richmond. The wedding will take place on the afternoon of November 25, at 5 o'clock, at the home of the bride's parents, in Corapeake, N. C.

Exhibit to Be Continued. On account of the continued interest in the sketches exhibited by Miss Adele Williams at the Jefferson Hotel, and to gratify the desire of the many people who have come again and again, the exhibit was not closed last night, but will remain open to visitors all day, closing at 10 o'clock to-night.

In Honor of Mrs. Culpepper. Mrs. William Thompson entertained yesterday afternoon at her home in Norfolk at a beautiful card party given in honor of her niece, Mrs. James H. Culpepper, and Miss Bessie Withers, of Redsville, N. C. The rooms were lovely with decorations of yellow chrysanthemums and lights beneath yellow shades. Progressive five-card solitaire was played, and the tables bore attractive little Cupids. The first prize, a pair of silk hose, was presented to Mrs. Abner Pope, and the consolation, a hand-painted madonna, was drawn by Mrs. C. B. Hill. The guest prize, a larger madonna, hand painted, was presented Mrs. Culpepper.

Visiting in Ashland. Miss Sara Wortham Coleman, formerly of this city, and well known here and in Boston for her unusual charm and ability as an elocutionist, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. R. H. Gregory, in Ashland. Miss Coleman will remain with her sister until after December 1, when she will leave for Nashville, Tenn.

To Spend Winter in Chicago. Professor H. T. Louthan, of the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, went to the Chicago University about the middle of June, and having obtained a leave of absence from the College of William and Mary for one year, expects to devote that time to work at the university.

Mrs. Louthan and children lingered in the mountains of Virginia until October 1, when they returned to Caroline county and Williamsburg. Mrs. Louthan and children joined Professor Louthan in Chicago about the last of October.

Amateur Play. Quite an attractive play has been arranged to be presented this evening at 8:15 o'clock in the lecture-room of Monumental Church. The performance will be under the direction of Mrs. Mai Foster, of Gwathmey, Va., and is called "The Family Album." Supper will be served after the entertainment. The principal characters will be taken by the following: Mrs. T. H. Bigger, Miss Annie L. Haynes, Miss Louise Crutfield, Miss Lucy Wade, Miss B. Page, Miss Mary Truman, Miss Hanna Bowers, J. A. Johnston, Lewis Williams, L. B. Slaughter, Henry Taylor and J. P. Crenshaw.

Mothers' Club to Entertain. The women of Madison Mothers' Club will give a delightful tea in the kindergarten rooms this evening between the hours of 5 and 10:30 o'clock. An interesting program, including an address by Dr. Chandler, has been arranged, after which refreshments will be served. All friends of the club are cordially invited to attend.

At Home This Afternoon. Mrs. Edgar Gunn and her daughters, Miss Katherine Gunn, will be at home informally to their friends this afternoon. Mrs. Gunn and her daughter are at home to callers every Friday afternoon in the month of November. To Maternity Their Friends. The young women of the Fowler Band of the Grace Street Baptist Church will give a delightfully informal affair to their friends this evening from 8 to 11 o'clock at the residence of Mrs. S. B. Adkins, 618 West Grace Street. It will be an "Evening of Illustrated Songs," and the house will be beautifully decorated in rose shaded lights and graceful vases of pink blossoms. The young women taking part in the tableaux will be Misses Keith Saville, Ida Bailey, Flora Burton, Gladys Adkins, Ruby Blount, Gean Jenkins, Thelma Griffith, Nettie Esther Wilson, Hazel Beverlode, Lucille Flippin, Della Smith, Virginia Payne and Grace Wyatt.

A great deal of skill has been shown in the arrangements for the program, and all who are interested are cordially invited to be present.

Laughton-Dutton. Dr. and Mrs. E. B. Dutton, of Lot, Middlesex county, Va., announce the marriage of their daughter, Marian White, to Ray James Riddick, of the town of the Virginia Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South.

The ceremony was quietly performed at the Lynden Hotel, in Norfolk, on Wednesday, at 5 o'clock, in the presence of members of the immediate family of the contracting parties.

Rev. W. C. Barker, of Lakes Memorial Church, performed the ceremony. The couple left immediately after for New York and other eastern cities, and will reside in Lynchburg after December 1.

Mr. Laughton, by recent action of the Conference, has been elected to this pastorate of West End Church in Lynchburg.

In and Out of Town. Miss Anna Jones for the program, the Misses Anderson at their home, "Montrose," in Louisa county, for several weeks.

Miss Kathleen Bruce, who has been the guest of relatives and friends in Baltimore and Philadelphia for some time, has returned to Richmond.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gray have closed their country home, "Northwood," in Cumberland, and have returned to 310 East Franklin Street for the winter.

Mrs. Lanier, of Oxford, N. C., is spending several days in Richmond.

Mrs. Frank Talbott, of Danville, is the guest of relatives in Richmond.

Miss Dolly Hart, of this city, is the guest of Mrs. A. M. Nelson, in Roanoke.

Miss Helen Haldeman has returned to Newport News after a stay of two weeks in this city.

Miss Rebecca Walker has returned to the city after a short visit to friends in Charlottesville.

Miss Hattie New is visiting in Newport News as the guest of her sister, Mrs. A. C. Jones.

Mrs. Charles Pettit, of Norfolk, has returned to her home after several days' visit in Richmond.

William Wolf, of Staunton, is visiting friends in this city.

Mrs. E. A. Robinson has moved from 1105 West Avenue, to 926 West Grace Street, where she will remain during the winter.

Mrs. James Morris is quite sick in Leesburg, Va., where she has been visiting.

Roberts-Munden. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CAPE CHARLES, VA., November 18.—A pretty home wedding was solemnized yesterday morning when Miss Annie Louise Munden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Munden, of this town, became the bride of George W. Roberts, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Asbury Burke, pastor of Bethany Methodist Episcopal Church.

The home was tastefully decorated with ferns and chrysanthemums. The bride wore a gown of chiffon silk. Conrad Grimmer and daughter entertained with instrumental music preceding the ceremony, and the wedding march was rendered by Miss Nannette Williams. There were no attendants. After an extended trip North, Mr. and Mrs. Roberts will reside at the home of the bride's parents.

First Actress. Who was the first professional English actress? Mrs. Sanderson, afterward Mrs. Betterton, who died in 1712.

A Spanish Jew. A Spanish woman is frequently referred to under this title and why? She was Adosinda, daughter of the Gothic Governor of Aurla. Bereft of parents, husband and child through the sword of the Moors, she slew her Jewish captor while he was sleeping with his own scimitar. She gave as the signal for attack the battle cry, "Victory and Vengeance!" in the great fight when the Moors were overthrown.

To Clean Sponges. What is the quickest and most effective way to clean sponges? Wash first in a solution made by adding a teaspoonful of ammonia to two quarts of water, and afterward in a solution of one part of muriatic acid to twenty-five parts of water. Sponges should be thoroughly rinsed, aired and dried after each using.

Correct Style of Acceptance. What is the correct style of acceptance in the matter of invitation? In general the correct style of acceptance may be derived from the invitation itself, as the answer is always written in the same degree of formality. The best course is to observe very carefully the formula of an invitation and follow it precisely in a reply. If it is in the third person, the reply must be in the third person. If it is in the first person, it must be answered by an informal note in the first person. If the invitation should be accepted, if possible, an invitation to a church wedding does not need a written reply.

Obligatory Calls. What calls come under the category of "obligatory calls"? It is not only a civility, but a social necessity, when one has served as bridesmaid, maid of honor, usher or best man, to call on the bride and groom shortly after the wedding, and upon the bride directly after the guests from the honeymoon. The guests at a home wedding reception, or breakfast, must call in due course on the mother of the bride and later on the bride. It is an obligation to call on one's hostess after a dinner, dance, a musicale or a luncheon. Dinner calls should be paid within a fortnight after the dinner.

Her Maiden Name. What was the maiden name of the late Mrs. John Jay of New York and where did she live? She was Miss Eleanor Field, daughter of Hickson W. Field, a New York merchant by the china trade. Her home was in the Stuyvesant Square neighborhood. She was ninety years of age, a charming and gracious old

OF INTEREST TO WOMEN

BY VIRGINIA WESTOVER.

Correspondents are requested to send communications on subjects in which they are interested and regarding which they desire information to the Editor of the Woman's Page.

Referring to a query regarding the famous Harry House, of Charleston, S. C., recently answered in this column, a correspondent sends the following additional items of interest.

"It is one of two houses in Charleston which have their portico built across the pavement. I cannot tell when it was built, but it must have been by a general Harry, for I have heard my father say that the old general was extremely proud of the front, with the pillars and the piazza over the sidewalk. He often called on his opposite neighbor to acknowledge that he enjoyed a great privilege in having constantly in view so graceful and artistic a sight. The anecdote about Marion is told by Weems, but Marion did not escape that way from the British. He was dining with Alexander McQueen at house on Tradd Street, since pulled down, and finding that they were making too deep for him he escaped from the party by jumping out of the second-story window, and broke his ankle. His physician advised him to retire to the quiet of his plantation, which he fortunately did, as he thus escaped capture by the British when they soon after took the town."

Probable Help for Subscriber. In reply to a question asked a few days ago by a girl who called herself "Subscriber," and whose address has been accidentally mislaid, the following paragraphs from a letter are inserted, as they offer her probable help in an effort she is making to get an education. The paragraphs say: "If you will kindly send me the name and address of 'Subscriber' in your paper of November 17 I think I can probably help her. Forward her my letter and ask her to call to see me. I will be glad to have her come."

lady. Her husband was United States Minister to Austria.

No Honorary Titles. Is it proper to address a married woman as Mrs. Captain Brown, Mrs. Judge Blank or Mrs. Dr. Blank? No. In America a woman does not assume her husband's honorary title.

Mode of Culture. What is the most stylish mode of culture this season? M. A. L. For older women as well as young girls the hair may be parted and drawn toward the back of the head, where it is twisted into a soft coil or arranged in puffs. Neither the coil or the puffs should be exaggerated, but made to suit the shape of the head. If more becoming a small pompadour with soft puffs at the back may be worn.

Great Convenience. Can you suggest the best way to put within easy reach things needed to amuse or interest an invalid? A work bag on a chair will probably provide what you have in mind. Attach to an ordinary splint rocker that has a padded seat and cushioned seat a series of cretonne pockets and bags made on a piece as long as the space from the arm to the lowest rung, and as wide as the space between the front and back legs of the chair. Sew small brass rings on the four corners of the piece and along the upper edge and tie to the chair firmly with ribbon or tape. Make the pockets any size desired.

Thompson-Conway. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CHATTAHOOGA, VA., November 18.—Miss Florence Conway and Henry V. Thompson were married at the Spring Garden Presbyterian Church at high noon Wednesday, Rev. J. A. Ponton performing the ceremony. The bride was A. V. Thompson, W. D. Owen, W. T. Shields and J. M. Conway, who entered first to the strains of the wedding march played by Mr. Duncanson. Then came Miss Lizzie Blair, with J. S. Thompson; Miss Ethel Watson, with B. L. Terry; Miss Maud Conway, with Ross Tunc; Miss Cordis Cox, with J. S. Thompson. Miss Ruth Conway was maid of honor and preceded the bride, who entered with her best man, W. S. Corbin. The bride was becomingly attired in a coat suit of white chrysanthemums. The maid of honor wore cream silk and carried yellow chrysanthemums. The bridesmaids were gowned in chrysanthemums. The bride is the daughter of James A. Conway, of Spring Garden.

Bates-Davis. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] FREDERICKSBURG, VA., November 18.—Miss Annie Walter Davis, daughter of George S. Davis, of this city, was married yesterday at the home of her brother, Hunter P. Davis, in Cumberland, Md., to Dr. Robley Dunlop, of New York, King and Queen county, Va. Dr. Bates is a practicing physician. They left for a bridal trip, and will be at home after November 21.

HER LIFE A BURDEN

Now Lady Says She Would Not Be Placed Back Where She Was For Whole World.

Ratcliff, Tex.—"Two years ago my health was very bad," writes Mrs. Mattie Campbell, of this place. "I suffered untold misery every month. It is useless to say where my worst aches were, for I ached all over every month. 'At times I wished for death to end my suffering, for life was a burden to me. 'Finally I decided to take Cardui. First I tried one bottle, and it helped me so much I ordered $5.00 worth. I took the six bottles, which kept me in fine health for one year and saved a large doctor's bill. 'I took six more bottles, and can now say that 12 bottles of Cardui had stopped my suffering, made life worth living and filled my home with joy and happiness. 'I would not be placed back like I was two years ago, not for this whole world rolled at my feet. 'Your wonderful medicine, Cardui, has my praise for all its great works, and I do wish that every suffering woman in the world would only try this grand medicine. 'If you suffer as Mrs. Campbell did, be sure that Cardui will help you as it did her. Why not try it? Your druggist sells it. Ask him. N. B.—Write to: Ladies' Advisory Dept., Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn., for Special Instructions and 64-page book, 'Home Treatment for Women,' sent in plain wrapper on request.

Byrd-Dulaney. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LEESBURG, VA., November 18.—The engagement is announced of Miss Marie Dulaney, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Mason Dulaney, to William Byrd, son of the late Colonel William Byrd, of Winchester. The wedding will take place early in December at St. Michael's and All Angels Church, Baltimore, in which city they will reside.

Campanck-Hungbrides. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] SPOTSVYLVANIA, VA., November 18.—A pretty marriage was celebrated at Snell, this county, at the home of John J. Perry, this afternoon at 5 o'clock, when Mrs. Bertie J. Humphries, widow of W. W. Humphries, became the bride of Robert J. Campanck, Jr., of Spotsylvania county. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Deatur Edwards, of the Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. Campanck will reside in Spotsylvania county.

Campaign for Scientific Farming. [Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CAPE CHARLES, VA., November 18.—The campaign in the interest of scientific farming, which is being carried on by the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway, was extended into Maryland yesterday, when a special agricultural steamboat began operations along the Potomac and Patuxent rivers. The campaign will continue four days, and four farming experts accompany the boats to deliver lectures at the fifteen landings to be visited.

VISITS HIS OLD HOME. After Thirty Years' Absence, Dr. Strachan Returns to Clarendon.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] CLARENDON, VA., November 18.—Dr. J. C. Strachan, of Princeton, N. C., arrived in Clarendon Tuesday, after an absence of thirty years from the land of his nativity. Dr. Strachan was the private physician of Major Allen at the time the major owned King Mill, Jamestown Island, Curle's Neck and the Clarendon estate, aggregating 35,000 acres. Major Allen also had 1,000 slaves, so many that he did not know his own men when he saw them. Dr. Strachan is now seventy-six years of age, and is still practicing

Prompt Relief

"I suffered with my head and back for over six years," writes Mrs. R. L. Bell, of McAlester, Okla. "I never could get anything to do me any good, although I tried almost everything except Cardui. One day while I was reading what other suffering women said it had done for them, I decided to try Cardui. "I am now on my third bottle and I don't feel like the same person. I feel so much stronger and better. I recommend Cardui to all suffering women."

POSTUM

Has brought them Sound Sleep, Steady Nerves, Good Digestion, Clear Brains, Strong Hearts, Comfort and Health.

Why?

Coffee certainly does destroy the so't gray filling in the nerve centres and brain.

When that goes far enough you feel it—Nervousness, heart trouble, sleeplessness, headache, indigestion, or some form of ailment caused by a shattered nervous system.

Keep at the coffee until you prove it.

Then if you value comfort from sturdy health on properly built nerve cells, quit coffee and take on POSTUM.

Then you quickly begin the rebuilding, and no one need tell you.

YOU KNOW IT.

The elements are in Postum that Nature demands.

COFFEE THE CAUSE OF Various Ailments.

It does not require a scientist to discover that coffee is harmful. Plain common sense and the simple habit of looking for the cause of things soon reveal coffee in its true light—that of a habit-forming drug. "My family on both sides were confirmed coffee tippers," writes a Penna. man, "and we suffered from nervousness, headache, sleeplessness, dizziness and palpitation of the heart. "Medical treatment never seemed to do any permanent good. I thought there must be some cause for these troubles, and yet did not find it was coffee until I was forty-one. "Hearing of the benefit that many had derived from changing to Postum, I quit coffee and used Postum entirely. Now I am like a new man. "I sleep well, can eat three good meals a day, have no headache nor palpitation, no nerve twitching in my face, and I don't have to pay out hard-earned money for medicines. "That's my experience, any way." Read "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs. "There's a Reason." Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true and full of human interest.
